

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY SOLICITOR – 5 YEARS PQE

Harold Benjamin is currently seeking a highly motivated commercial property solicitor to join its commercial property and secured lending team.

Your duties will include advising lenders and borrowers and to act on commercial and residential loans; advising clients and to act for them in respect of commercial and residential acquisitions, disposals and leases.

Additionally, you will be acting for lenders and borrowers; drafting contracts, transfers, leases, finance documentation and any other documents typical to a property related transaction.

Harold Benjamin is a recognised firm working to the highest professional standards. You will be expected to identify the relevant legal principles and apply them accurately to matters under their control; be excellent in your work and to be able to work autonomously, and to progress matters using their own skill and judgement and recognising when they require assistance from others.

Harold Benjamin has a varied client base and is known for its commercial and pragmatic approach. As such, we are looking for someone who is keen on enhancing and growing their client care skills and has natural acumen in client relationship management. We want problem solvers who are keen on building long term relationships.

If you are a commercial property solicitor who has an enterprising spirit and is keen on growing, we would like to hear from you.
